Governor's Road Plan Will Aid Antioch Area

The Antioch area will benefit from the recent announcement of Gov. Ogilvie's $575.8 million road program for the state of Illinois in 1970.

Widening and resurfacing work on Rte. 173 between Hebron and Antioch is expected to cost $1.1 million.

This project will stretch some 18.68 miles of Rte. 173 from Rte. 83 to Rte. 47.

A total of $708,000 will be spent for additional lanes on U.S. 12 near the Chain O'Lakes State Park entrance and the state highway department plans to spend $1.3 million for widening and resurfacing of 20.74 miles of Rte. 83 from the Illinois-Wisconsin line north of Antioch to Rte. 120 and from Rte. 21 to Rte. 53.

Some $1.4 million will be spent for additional lanes on Rte. 132 between Rtes. 83 and 45.

Meanwhile L. M. Woods, chairman of the Antioch Planning Commission said that there seems to be confusion and speculation over the proposed extension of Rte. 53 which will have some effect on Antioch.

"First of all," he said, "I would like to make it clear that the Antioch Planning Commission is interested in Antioch, its growth and future, as well as the present."

"The planning commission would not consider any proposal by the state to run a major highway through a now existing subdivision."

Woods said the commission was shown maps of the area and statistics collected by the state and to his knowledge the proposed road is five to ten years in the future and plans could be made by the commission to "plan around the road."

State representatives present, he said, noted that no land had been purchased or negotiated for the extension at this time and they are presently attempting to find corridors, approximately three miles in width.

"There are always advantages and disadvantages to a road program," he said, "especially a limited access highway and we as a planning commission have discussed some of these and it is possible there are others we are unaware of."

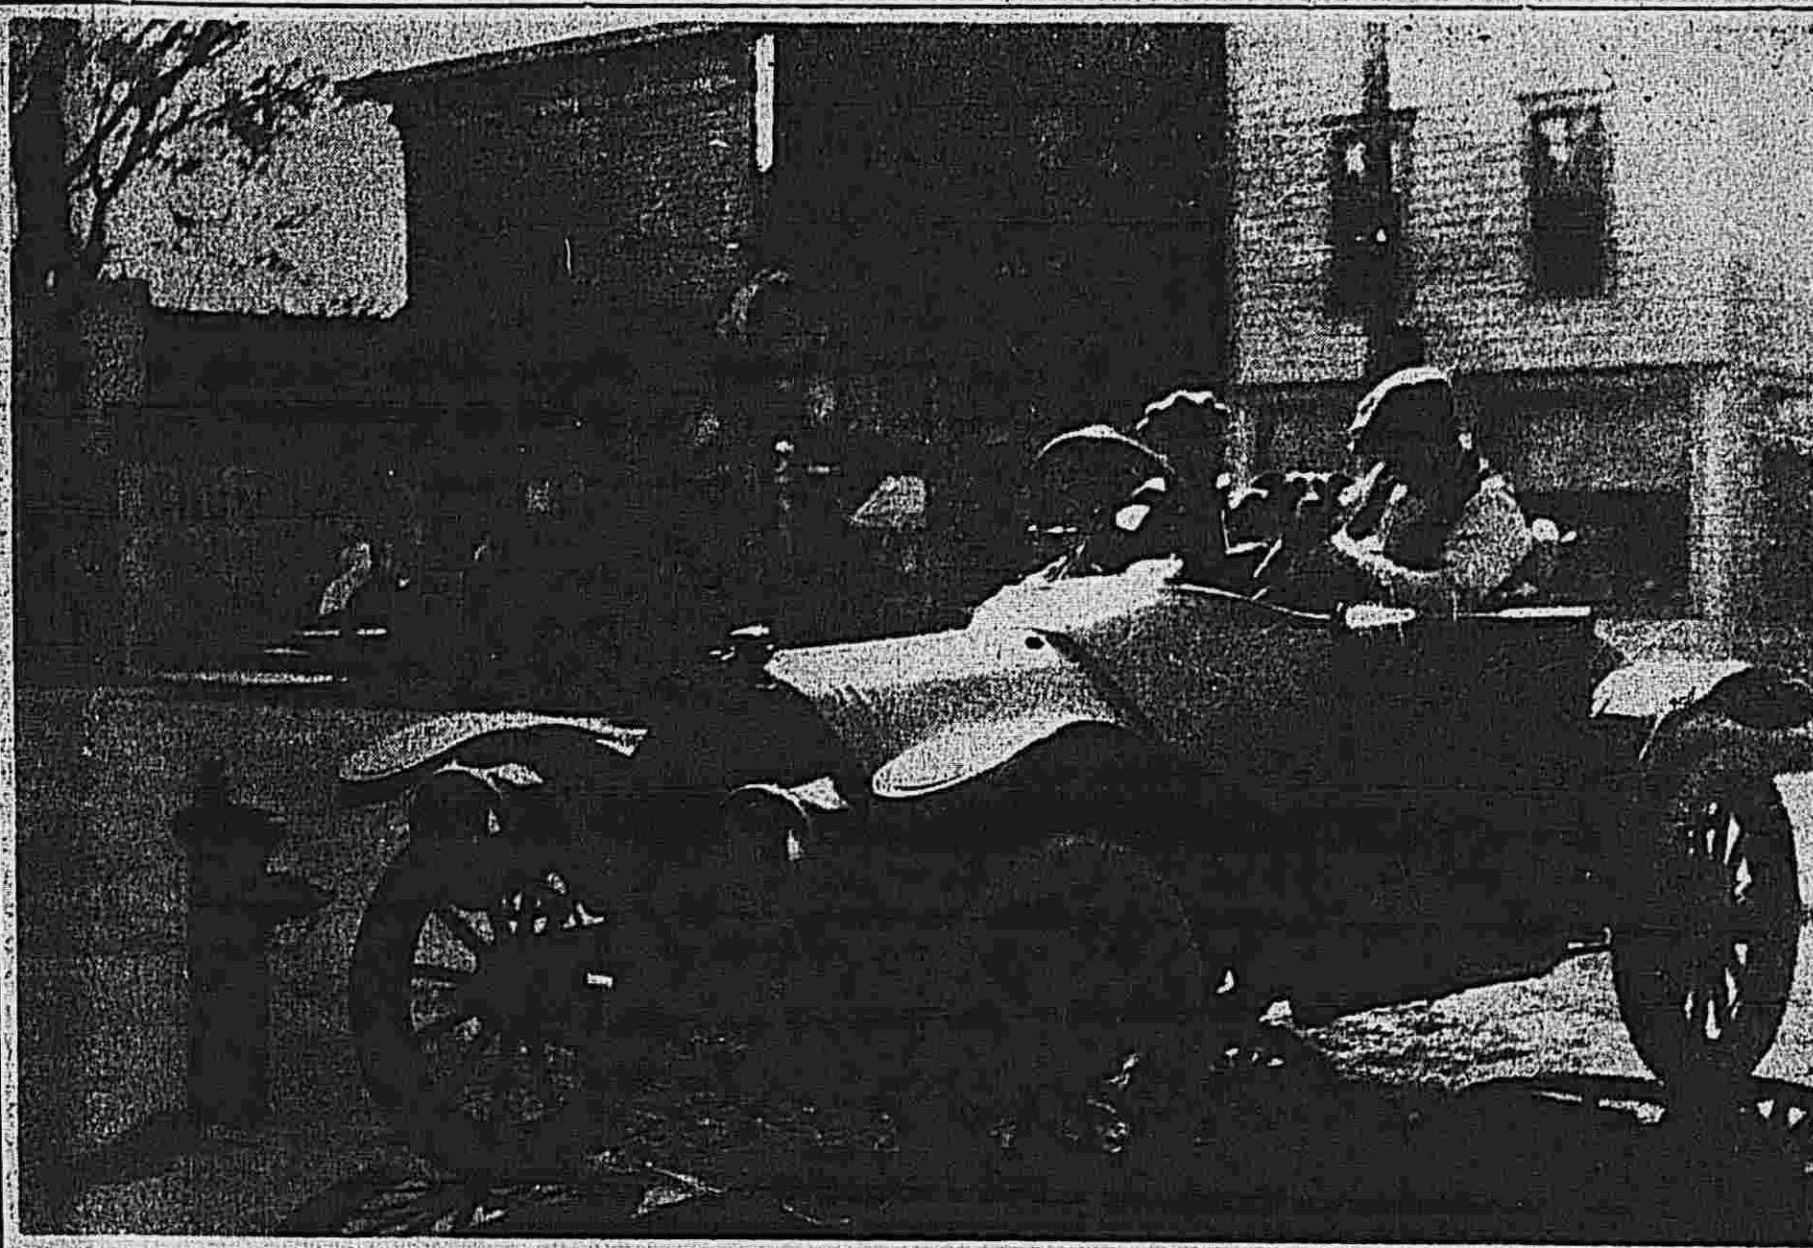

"The original plan of the route going west of Antioch. However this was placed there before the new Antioch upper grade school was under construction."

"This was one of the reasons why the planning commission was in favor of having the road go east of town. It seems to us it would be better to have a major road run through an industrial area rather than a school area."

Woods added that since there are a large number of people coming out to the resorts in the summer it would be advantageous to have them east of the central business district, rather than west.

"It was the feeling of the planning commission," he said, "that if there was a division it would be better to have it there."

It's All A Local Matter

(First of a series of articles on the importance, preservation of and future of local government today — and particularly township government — in the State of Illinois. Written by L. E. Ahlswede, political and historical writer and author of "Township Government Today.")

By L. E. AHLWEDE
You are free and independent. You possess inalienable rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. You cannot be deprived of these rights without due process of law.

You have religious freedom. And freedom of speech. You have the right to trial by jury. You are protected against unreasonable searches and seizures in your home. There can be no public seizure or damage of your property without just compensation.

You cannot be summarily imprisoned for debt.

You may seek legal remedies for personal injuries and wrongs.

You have the right to assemble peaceably, and to make grievances known. You have the right to free elections.

You possess these rights because your federal and state constitutions say so. They are the twelve major provisions in constitutional Bills of Rights.

Now consider these rights in terms of their application. They will not work at all unless they work locally.

How can you be free and independent if not locally? How can you obtain legal protection and justice if it were not available locally? How can you have religious freedom, freedom of speech, the right of peaceable assembly, or free elections if there were no local protection of these rights?

Oh, yes; you could call out the militia or the army for protection. But unless there is local surveillance of rights and laws, you would constantly be living in an armed state.

The recitation of these rights, and their local application, interpretation and execution emphasizes the tremendous significance of local government. Strong local governments are vital to the protection of individual rights. They are vital to democracy.

If local governments exist only to protect individual rights and to help preserve democracy, this is justification enough to keep them strong.

Countries throughout the world have not been as fortunate as America. In Russia, local governments are responsible only to the state. In Cuba, local governments were wiped out as Castro took over. There is no claim to local government in China. Nazi Germany had no local governments of any consequence. In all cases, Power Government took over.

Of unusual interest, India has an ineffective system of local governments, but its various groups and sects demand a degree of independence that prevents the total dominance of central government. In African nations, tribes function as local governments — and Power Government advocates difficulties unless they wipe out or kill off the dissenting tribes.

In the United States, local governments include the county, township, municipality, village, plus a variety of special purpose districts, as they exist in Illinois.

Each of these local governmental units is responsible to the state legislature, but is a government also responsible to the people within its boundaries. It is this responsibility to the people — and as in the case of townships, very directly so — which makes local government a vital and great part of our democratic processes.

Control by Power Government cannot succeed when responsible local governments exist as buffers between the people and Power Government.

Road Work Ahead

Governor Richard Ogilvie's new road program—recently announced—is an ambitious one to say the least.

But it is much needed throughout the State of Illinois where roads have been allowed to lapse into a horrible condition, adding to the rising traffic fatality toll each year.

While there are only a few projects in the Antioch area at the present time, they are much needed.

In his program the governor has earmarked $220.7 million for work on interstate highways, including the construction of 42 miles of new pavement.

But he has not forgotten the roads that you and I travel to get to our jobs and return home safely.

The remaining $355.1 million of this ambitious program will be used to finance work on non-interstate roads.

The total expenditure in Lake County will be in the neighborhood of $10 million.

While this seems like merely a drop in the bucket, we must admit that it is a start.

Maybe we will get a bigger share next time.

But until that time, we say get moving. A little is better than nothing at all.

Kudos For The NRA

Congress has taken a giant step forward—at least in the eyes of the American sportsmen.

It has finally and overwhelmingly repealed the registration of rifle and shotgun ammunition sales.

The sportsmen, in their turn, should give their kudos to the National Rifle Association which played a prime role in the lifting of that measure.

Demand for the removal of this harrassment has been mounting throughout the American public, especially in the suburban areas outside of the big cities.

The vote was 65 to 16 in the Senate and 334 to 47 in the House.

In an editorial in The American Rifleman it was pointed out that Sen. Thomas J. Dodd of Connecticut criticized Congress for its action and then attacked firearms and especially handguns in line with a recommendation of the National Commission on the Causes and Prevention of Violence that private ownership of handguns be abolished.

Prof. James W. Vining, of Western Illinois University, the editorial said, related an experience in a South American country with a disarmed population where crime is rampant and honest folk stand and watch while armed criminals steal their crops and cattle.

The professor said he carried a gun in violation of the law and it was instrumental in keeping him from being robbed and possibly murdered.

It would seem kind of assinine to us to disarm all of the honest folk when you could never reach the criminal who is sure to be armed despite any laws passed.

Any thinking person would think it would not make sense to disarm, or even partially disarm the populace in the face of the worst crime wave this country has ever seen.

fers against such power. It can not succeed where the people possess constitutional rights — and where those rights are served and protected locally.

The individual must also have rights of participation in government — to feel that he is involved in it, contributing to it and even becoming a part of it. This is, in fact, a strong factor in the growth and progress of a community. Where the people feel rewarded that it is their community, as a result of their contributions and efforts, there will be growth and progress.

The more local opportunities for this participation, the better. The more local governments and local governmental functions, the better.

It is sometimes said that people do not participate in local government as they should. That they do not attend meetings. On the contrary, they certainly do attend meetings when issues arise which affect them. At a town meeting in upstate Illinois, 350 citizens jammed the hall to vote on an important civic proposal, and although this may be a record, it is not unique.

Compare that with the relative number of people from a given community who ever sit in the galleries of a state legislature, or the national Congress!

Participation and interest in local government also educates the people in all government. It improves the understanding of Chairman. The chief speaker at the rally will be State Senator Alan J. Dixon, candidate for State Treasurer on the Democratic ticket next November. Also present will be Michael Bekalis, candidate for State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

"We originally scheduled this meeting for the Central Committee so that the committeemen could meet the county candidates and Senator Dixon. Then, when we found Mr. Bekalis would be here, we decided it was too good a thing to keep to ourselves so we are opening it up to the public," Stern went on.

Other political figures, who expect to be in attendance are State Representatives John S. Matijevich and Daniel M. Pierce of the 31st and 32nd Districts, respectively, James Cone, candidate for U.S. Congress from the 12th District, and the Democratic candidates for State Senators in the 31st and 32nd Senatorial Districts: Ronald A. Orner of Highland Park and Jeffrey R. Diver of Waukegan.

"Adlai Stevenson is the only candidate who cannot be with us," Stern continued, "and we sort of jumped the gun by endorsing him at a big meeting up here in November. We think of him as a hometown boy, and I am sure we'll see a lot of him in Lake County during the actual campaign."

The Democratic county slate which includes Grace Mary Stern, currently Assistant Supervisor from Deerfield Township who seeks the office of County Clerk, Ray Biondi of Highland Park, who will run for County Treasurer, and Marion G. "Red" Faber, candidate for County Sheriff, will also be heard from very briefly. "It should be great," said Stern. "We're looking for a big crowd. And I really believe this is the year that a slate of fresh faces, running on a platform of unquestioned integrity is going to clear out the party hacks — in Lake County and statewide."

Dixon, Illinois Senate Minority whip was the youngest member of either house when he was elected in 1950. Senator Dixon has spent the past 20 years in the legislature — twelve in the House and eight in the Senate.

And although there was a groundswell of support for him to be selected by the Democratic State Central Committee for the U.S. Senate race to be run in November 1970, he was picked instead to run for State Treasurer, a post currently held by Adlai Stevenson III. Stevenson, who cannot succeed himself as Treasurer in any case will seek the office of U.S. Senator.

Famous as a deliverer of "stemwinder" speeches, Senator Dixon has been giving considerable attention recently to the "Ogilvie budget."

In a recent talk downstate he said: "The state budget under Ogilvie is 44% higher than the last budget of the Shapiro administration. And I want you to know these are not my figures, but those of the Illinois Chamber of Commerce!"

He went on to point out that "The Republicans have increased the gas tax, the sales tax, license fees and they have imposed higher taxes on alcoholic beverages. And if the governor's original request for state income tax had gone through, we would have had an annual surplus, even with the Ogilvie budget, of $450,000,000!"

Senator Dixon was born in 1927 in Belleville, Illinois, an area that he still represents.

A practicing lawyer there, he has been described by the Metro East Journal as "one of the outstanding orators of the Democratic Party."

He is active in the Young Democrats of Illinois, a Past Adjutant of American Legion Post No. 58, the Chamber of Commerce, Amvets and the Navy Club. He is married and the father of three children.

CLC Will Present 1st Play

Final production rehearsals began Monday evening for the College of Lake County's first dramatic offering, J. B. by Archibald MacLeish. Performances will be held at Avon Community School on Jan. 16, 17 and 18. Curtain time on Friday and Saturday is 8:15 p.m., and the Sunday matinee is scheduled to begin at 2:00 p.m.

J. B. is a modern adaptation of the Old Testament story of Job in MacLeish's Pulitzer Prize winning version of the conflict between God and the Devil over the faith of Job. The setting and action are shifted from ancient Israel, taking place, instead, in the circus arena of life, while the protagonist becomes a contemporary businessman rather than a Biblical patriarch.

The cast of the play combines many strata of the county college community and includes all degrees of theatrical experience. Playing the title role is Mr. Don Crop of Mundelein who has for years been active in community theatre work. Opposite Mr. Crop as Sarah his wife is Carol Hawkinson, a Freshman from Mundelein who is appearing on stage for the first time.

As Mr. Zuss and Nickles—God and Satan—are John Mills of Mundelein and Charles Stransky of Grayslake, both Vietnam veterans, who are beginning college work at CLC. Mr. Stransky plans to continue professional theater training after graduation from the community college.

Job's comforters are played by Frank Onesti of Spring Grove, Tom Foley of Waukegan, and Vaughn Filwelt of Waukegan. The messengers who bring tidings of the disasters which overwhelm Job are Marty Lusiak of Antioch and David Holm of Libertyville. A group of women serving as a chorus commenting on the drama is composed of Mary Helen Fisher, Patricia Crop, Nancy Narvett and Gail Bender. The off-stage voice which prompts Zuss and Nickles and begins the entire action is that of Glen Oquist. Sarah Johnson, Judy Schweiss, and Charles Franklin serve as the circus roustabouts and property personnel who provide the carnival atmosphere of the "big top" and suggest time and scene changes through their pantomime. Serving as children of Job and as youngsters caught in the final holocaust which destroys Job's world are Richard Grover, Debbie Narvett, Margot Harnish, Judy Crop, Sue Fitzpatrick and Don W. Crop.

According to the director, Frank Harnish, J. B. is an appropriate play to begin a new year, a new decade, and a new college. Despite the difficulties encountered by the protagonist, the drama is a play of hope and affirmation. Its final message is a faith in oneself and in the future.

Technical supervision of the play is in the hands of Mr. Glen Gerichen of the CLC speech staff, and stage management is assigned to James Middaugh who has long been involved in Lake County Community theatre work.

There are no reserved seats for the production and tickets may be obtained at the box office in Avon Community School on performance dates January 16, 17 and 18. Admission for adults will be $1.50 and for children $.75.

Legion Auxiliary

By Del Jahneke

"Clip and snip throughout the year; soon those checks will be arriving here" is this year's slogan for the state coupon program of the Illinois American Legion Auxiliary. Most auxiliary members throughout Illinois have been busily occupied clipping and saving coupons, stamps, box tops, bottle caps, etc. for a number of years. Funds derived from this project will further department (state) child welfare and community service programs. Included will be the continuation of aid to retarded and handicapped children, the purchase of equipment for Chicago's Cook County Hospital's Burn Center, considered one of the leading burn treatment centers in the country, and other community service projects.

This year, both the 10th District Coupon Chairmen are from Libertyville — Mrs. Chester Schermerman and Mrs. Herbert Gleason, respectively. The Antioch unit coupon chairman is Mrs. Ralph Fields.

All unit members and friends are urged to keep collecting and saving all redeemable coupons from various premium products.

Through the collection of various dog food labels, the American Legion Auxiliary is also able to furnish seeing-eye dogs for blind veterans. Ten thousand labels are needed to obtain just one such dog. Cash value of this amount of coupons is approximately $1,500.00. This sum includes three months' training of the dog; four weeks' training of the dog master team; round trip transportation to and from the student's home; and room and board during the training period.

Many seeing-eye dogs have been provided through the redemption of these dog labels by the American Legion Auxiliary and friends. The dog food labels go directly to the Pilot Dog Foundation from the coupon chairman.

All units would welcome coupons contributed by members and friends. For any further information, please contact Mrs. Ralph Fields.

The 10th District American Legion Auxiliary will hold its first board meeting of the new year on January 26th, at 8:00 p.m., at the Lake Villa Trust and Savings Bank. Mrs. John Mould, Wauconda, District President, will conduct the meeting.

Ever see a $200 bill?

Just one would buy you a whole year of electric heat.

And you'd probably have money left over. Surprised? You shouldn't be... because electric heat just doesn't cost a small fortune anymore.

Here's why: Commonwealth Edison has cut the cost of electric heat dramatically in the last ten years. That's why today, you should expect to pay less than $200 a year for electric heat in an average six-room home with proper insulation.

So if you still believe the myth that you have to make a lot of money to afford electric heat, forget it.

It's as phony as a $200 bill!

THE ANTIOCH NEWS

Antioch Wins Two

Last week proved to be a very successful one for the Antioch Sequoits as they beat Grayslake 93 to 70 on Friday and Wauconda 78 to 56 on Saturday.

The Friday night game saw the Sequoits at their best. The rebounding was terrific with Keith Bolton and Jeff Sterbenz leading. From the rebounding, the Sequoit running game developed and this led to great basket scoring. Sterbenz, Steve Bentele and Tom Martin lead the way with some fine passing to assist the scorers of the game.

It was good to see the boys run as well as they did. It was by far our best running game. It was a terrific game," quoted the Sequoit mentor. "We were also pleased with the defense as the team limited the county scoring leader to only 7 points," added Coach Andrews.

On Saturday evening, the Sequoit squad gave the home crowd some anxious moments. Playing the Wauconda Bulldogs, the last place team in the league, the Sequoits weren't mentally ready for this game. Wauconda jumped out to an early 8 to 3 and continued to lead the Sequoits through the first and second quarters. Jim Kazimour lead the Wauconda offense with 13 points in the first half. The score at the half stood Wauconda 26, Antioch 22. Tom Martin kept the Sequoits in the game during the first half with some fine clutch plays.

During the third quarter, the Sequoits started to pick up, as both Jeff Sterbenz and Keith Bolton came alive around the basket. But still with 1:30 left the Sequoits still trailed by 3, 38 to 35. At this point, the Sequoits scored 8 straight points, three by Bolton and Sterbenz, and a rebound basket by Romaine to end the third quarter leading 43-38.

At the outset of the fourth quarter, the Sequoits found their running game. In the next five minutes they ran Wauconda off the floor, as they scored 23 points to Wauconda's 5 points.

During the last three minutes of the game, both coaches substituted freely to let all their players play.

On Monday evening the Junior-Varsity team beat Wauconda 60 to 44, to put the icing on the cake.

The next game for the Antioch Sequoits will be Friday, Jan. 16, at Warren.

CBA Sets 3 Games This Week

This weekend the Continental Basketball Association, three games will be played, as four teams are neck and neck in the fight for the playoff positions.

The top four teams in the season standings will meet in the playoffs at the end of the year. The winner of Rockford at Decatur on Sunday, will remain in the top four. Meanwhile, Waukegan travels to Grand Rapids in pursuit of their second victory. Peoria invades Cudahy for the first time this season. A Peoria victory would certainly tighten the standings in the league.

The home court advantage has been beneficial to most teams in the league. Rockford and Cudahy have not lost a single game on their home court this season, but Rockford more than any other team, wishes their entire schedule could be played at home. So far this year, Rockford has won all five of their home games and lost all five of their away games.

Expansion plans for the CBA are in progress. So far, 2 cities are from Michigan, 1 from Illinois, 1 from Ohio, and 2 from Wisconsin have expressed interest in having a team in the CBA next season.

Attendance has been picking up throughout the league. Grand Rapids is averaging 3,012 people per game. Decatur has been averaging 1,891. Peoria, 1,527; Rockford, 1,383; Cudahy 1,052 and Waukegan, 603. On December 27, 1969, Grand Rapids, with a crowd of over 5,000 had a higher attendance than 2 out of 3 NBA games played the same night.

An unofficial survey shows that the attendance in the CBA is higher than that of the ABA.

Grayslake Wins Salem Tourney

The Grayslake Panthers won the first annual Salem Holiday Basketball Tournament. The Panthers accomplished this feat by defeating Riverview in the first round, Lake Villa in the semifinals and Salem in the finals.

In the opening round Grayslake upended Riverview by a 46 to 26 score. The Panthers were paced by balanced scoring as Anderson, Mendralla and Macquarrie led the way. Riverview was paced by Aldridge and Faber. The second game saw Lake Villa dump Bristol by a 41 to 21 count. Bristol was only two points behind in the third quarter but Lake Villa had too much depth and outscored their opponents by a 14 to 2 in the last quarter. Pacing the winners were McGuire and Bocox while the losers were paced by Peachy and Robertson. In the final game of the first round, Salem built up a commanding lead and then held on to defeat Prince of Peace, 35 to 21. Leading the way for the Falcons was Jacobson and McAlister while Sorensen and Skora paced Prince of Peace.

In the semi-finals, the Grayslake Panthers dumped the Lake Villa Lancers by a 49 to 30 count. The Lancers gave the Panthers a game the first half, but once again the Grayslake depth paid off as they outscored their opponent in the second half by a 21 to 11 count. Pacing the Panthers were Macquarrie and Hartman while Killhefer was the leading scorer for Lake Villa. In the other semi-final game, Salem dumped North Prairie to advance to the finals. The Falcons who scored 46 points were lead by Jacobson, Koenecke and Plants, while the losers were paced by McCaffery and Hoppe who scored 20 of the team's 29 points.

In the consolation round, Lake Villa beat North Prairie by a 40 to 32 count. Pacing the third place Lake Villa Lancers were Killhefer and McGuire while the Panthers were lead by McCaffery and Hoppe.

In the finals of the Holiday Classic, Grayslake came from behind in the final minute to edge Salem. The Falcons jumped to a 10 point lead in the first quarter but by half-time Grayslake had cut the lead to 4 points. The game remained tight for the third quarter and at the end of the quarter the Panthers had cut the Falcon lead to 3 points. Grayslake tied the game midway through the last quarter and it wasn't until the last minute that the Panthers scored 6 straight points to win the game by a 29 to 23 count. Pacing the Lancers attack were Hartman and Anderson while Jacobson, Plants and Koenecke paced Salem.

The top scorers of the tournament were:
C. Hartman, Grayslake 32
R. Macquarrie, Grayslake 30
O. Killhefer, Lake Villa 28
T. Jacobsen, Salem 28
K. Anderson, Grayslake 26

F.I.S. Squad To Compete At Norge

F.I.S. Squad to compete at Norge. Of the nine member U.S. Ski Squad, six will compete at the U.S. Central Division ski jumping championship meet at Norge, Jan. 18th. Considered the elite group, they, after weeks of training in Europe and competing against the world's best should be in top form for the big Norge meet.

Invitations have been extended to the remaining three skiers but because they are not of the Central Division as the other six are, they cannot compete for the central crown.

Inasmuch as the elite nine are considered the Nation's best it is expected that six of these will make up the team that will represent the U.S. in the World Championship Games this coming Feb. in Czechoslovakia. This does not rule out the possibility that some unknown might not edge his way in by the time the trial runs are over.

In any event, it is a known fact that Norge will traditionally have a gathering of our nation's best ski jumpers who have two things in common, that is the desire and ability to break the existing 212 ft. hill record. Their greatest motive for wanting to do so is the fact that their Coach, Gene Kollarek holds that record.

Athletic Conference Inaugurated

A new athletic conference for two-year public colleges in Illinois has been established by six Chicago area community colleges. Called the "Skyway" community college athletic conference, the new league formally adopted its constitution and elected a first state of officers on December 9, 1969. Charter members of the new league are College of Lake County, Elgin Community College, McHenry County College, Triton Junior College, Waubesa Community College, and William Rainey Harper College. The new conference borrows its name from the locations of the member colleges which form a cluster around O'Hare International Airport.

Membership in the new league will result in the withdrawal of these six colleges from the Northern Illinois junior college league as of next fall, 1970. Other officers chosen by the "Skyway" conference include president Dr. James Harvey, vice-president of student affairs at Harper, vice-president William Prince, athletic director of Waubesa College and secretary-treasurer, Dr. Russell Boyer, dean of students at the College of Lake County.

Dr. Boyer points out that the "skyway" conference, constitution reflects "common philosophies of athletics" among the six charter member colleges.

"We joined together because of our proximity to one another, and we hope to expand membership in 'Skyway' to no more than eight colleges. The Northern Illinois junior college league has become too cumbersome, now having about 24 members and a variety of athletic philosophies among its membership."

The "Skyway" constitution provides for tight controls upon recruitment and subsidies. Recruiting by any conference member college is restricted to the boundaries of that college's legally established district, except for Illinois areas that are not part of a junior college district.

Member colleges may not award athletic scholarships or other subsidies based solely upon a student's athletic participation. Another control adopted by the conference is the prohibition of booster club financial aid to individual athletes.

The "Skyway" conference will provide a balanced program of intercollegiate athletics. The league will begin competition next fall in basketball, cross country, golf, and wrestling to be followed in spring 1971 by baseball and tennis. "We hope to add other programs, including football, within the next three to four years," Dr. Boyer reveals.

Orner Seeks...

sons, Eric, 6 and Peter, 1. He is a 1953 graduate of Highland Park High School and received degrees from Northwestern University in 1957 and from Northwestern University School of Law in 1959.

In a recent statement Orner insisted that the public deserves and requires youthful new ideas in its state government. "My candidacy is based upon the belief that active and imaginative leadership is essential to the preservation of a viable state government," he said. "Throughout the nation state government has failed to live up to its responsibilities to the public. The growing reach of federal regulation arises largely from this default by local government to do its job. If state government is to survive, direct and active attacks must be leveled against the problems of our state. These attacks cannot be led by the tired and unresponsive incumbent leadership."

Orner believes that the first requirement for revitalizing state government is the restoration of public confidence in the integrity of its leadership. "In light of recent events in which the conduct of many officials has been challenged, I favor the passage of strict ethical codes for all public officials, under which they are required to reveal publicly their financial holdings and special interests. I am intent upon removing state politics from smoky back rooms. I therefore pledge to bring all crucial issues into the open with my constituency, and to solicit their views on a regular and continuing basis."

Despite justifiably increasing demands for governmental services, Orner is convinced that spending and taxation can nevertheless be minimized and that "less government" can be achieved. He outlined his ideas as follows: "I have a particular interest in solving the problems created by the multiplicity and overlapping of local governmental units. I believe that inefficiency and publication in providing community services can be diminished by legislation which rewards cooperation between local governments now jealously competing with one another. In this fashion state government would act to improve the performance of local government, and tax dollars for the people can be saved."

Other areas which require vigorous reforms in the State of Illinois, according to Orner, include traffic, safety, driver licensing, and of paramount importance, the deterioration of natural resources by industrial and other forms of pollution. Orner also stated that "the problems of poverty, urban decay, mass transportation, the elderly, and the alienation of major elements of our society cannot be ignored by state government on the premise that only federal government is equipped to handle them. State government bears equal responsibility in these areas with federal government, and while state government cannot be expected to fund the necessary total solutions, it must harness local ingenuity to promote local pilot and research projects as creative alternatives to federal programs. Problems are never solved unless solutions are attempted."

Orner served in the United States Army Reserve Advocate General Corps for six years. He has practiced law for ten years and is presently the senior partner in a law firm bearing his name. He is admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the State of Illinois and is a member of the Chicago, Illinois State and American Bar Associations.

Orner has been active in Democratic politics for many years, and has worked for the candidacy of many leading Democrats.

4-H Leaders Will Meet On Jan. 19

Citizenship and People-to-People will be the two 4-H activities to receive emphasis at the Jan. 19, Lake County 4-H leaders training meeting in the next Extension Building.

Citizenship will be stressed at the afternoon 1:00-3:00 p.m. session and People-to-People at the 7:30-9:30 p.m. evening session. Some time will be given to other topics of current interest.

Two outstanding personalities will lead the Citizenship and People-to-People activity discussions. Rev. Paul Lindstrom, Pastor of the Church of Christian Liberty and Head Master of the Christian Liberty Academy at Prospect Heights, will discuss the Citizenship and what 4-H leaders can do to promote citizenship among the 4-H members.

Rev. Lindstrom is uniquely qualified to discuss this important 4-H activity, because of his pastoral and other activities in which he has manifested a deep Christian concern for people everywhere. The People-to-People Activity will be discussed by John Bonner, former Lake County 4-H Club member and recent International Farm-Youth Exchange Delegate to West Germany. John Bonner had the unique opportunity to become intimately acquainted with the members of the various farm families with which he lived during his six months visit in West Germany from June to December 1969.

In addition to the two main activities for discussion, other items of current interest will be presented.

All 4-H leaders are urged to take advantage of these special leadership training meetings, state the Lake County Extension advisers.

Tap Owners Elect Mark Turner

Plans for a community action program "to get the tavern owners of Lake County involved in the life of our community" was announced by William (Mark) Turner, of Antioch, following his reelection as President of the Tavern Owners Association of Lake County Thursday.

Turner, who operates Mark's Castle at Rtes. 45 and 173 east of Antioch, was unopposed in his bid for a third consecutive term as president of the association.

Elected with Turner were Gil McCormick, of Lake Bluff, vice-president; Frank Conti, of Round Lake, secretary-treasurer; and Leland (Slim) Bracher, of Libertyville, sergeant-at-arms.

Commenting on the community action plans Turner said, "Most tavern owners are involved individually in their communities by sponsoring teams, donating to Little League and other youth groups, and by lending a helping hand to church and neighborhood functions, but this will be the first time our Association has tried to develop a county-wide program as an association."

One possible avenue of participation Turner said will be the "adoption" of one or more charitable or health organizations to which the association will make financial donations.

"We plan to appoint an association committee to develop and activate this program immediately," Turner said.

Employment Survey Is Set Here

The monthly survey of employment and unemployment conducted by the Bureau of the Census will be made in this area during the week of Jan. 18, according to Theodore F. Olson, Director of the Bureau's regional office in Chicago.

Households to be interviewed here are part of a scientifically designed sample of the U.S. population. The survey statistics are collected for the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the U.S. Department of Labor to furnish a basic measure of the Nation's economic health.

Information collected in Bureau surveys can be used only to determine statistical totals, and facts about each person and family are kept completely confidential by law.

Publications available from the March of Dimes Professional Education Program are used as teaching materials in medical schools across the country.

Trucking Industry Caught In Squeeze

Although its gross revenue reached a new high, the nation's trucking industry in 1969 has been caught in a "profit squeeze" which has forced its net income some $36 million below the previous year.

In an assessment of industry progress, William A. Bresnahan, in Washington, D. C., managing director of American Trucking Associations, described 1969 as "a year of mixed results."

"While gross revenues for trucking companies subject to

Auditions Set For PM&L Play

Auditions for the upcoming PM&L production of Pan Fure, a dramatic comedy will be held Monday and Wednesday evenings, Jan. 19 and 21 at 8 p.m. in the Antioch Country Club Playhouse, Rte. 59 and Grass Lake Road.

Singers, dancers, actors and technicians are all needed for this variety revue which will be presented on Fridays and Saturdays, Feb. 13, 14, 27 and 28.

ICC regulation are expected to be up approximately eight per cent—to $13.3 billion from the preceding year's $12.4 billion," Bresnahan said, "net income is likely to be around $240 million. This compares with $276 million in 1968. Expenses rose at an accelerating rate in every quarter and will close the year up more than 10 per cent."

"Increased equipment costs, higher operating costs, increased labor costs and higher taxes have caught the trucking industry in a genuine profit squeeze," Bresnahan said. "We have just about reached the optimum in our productive capabilities. We have sought—and are seeking—relief from Congress on the present restrictive 'freeze' on truck sizes and weights. Aside from rate increases, this is the only way in which the industry can relieve this squeeze."

Bresnahan noted that, as it has for a number of years, the trucking industry has again served as an accurate reflector of trends in the general economy.

Gross National Product (GNP) for 1969 is expected to reach $390 billion, in current dollars, in a 7.5 per cent rise. Yet, for the general economy, as well as the trucking industry, that increase has been "largely profitless," he declared.

The ATA executive cited the sharp difference between the anticipated 2.5 per cent rise in all corporate profits—from $91 billion in 1968 to $93.5 billion in 1969—and the estimated 13 per cent decline in motor carrier profits, after taxes.

Forecasts for 1970, which indicate a probable decline in corporate net profit for the year, point to an accelerating decline in motor carrier net profit—at least for the first six months of 1970, he said.

The second half of the coming year for the trucking industry will undoubtedly be greatly affected by the outcome of labor negotiations which are slated to occur early in 1970.

Bresnahan pointed to several additional factors as evidence of the adverse effect of inflation on the trucking industry in 1969:

—Inter-city tons increased less than 5 per cent—from 575 million in 1968 to 600 million in 1969.

—Ton-miles of freight moved rose only 2 1/2 per cent—from 396 billion in 1968 to 406 billion in 1969.

—New truck sales are up approximately 8 per cent from the 1968 total of 1.8 million units to 1.9 million in 1969.

The industry outlook toward 1970 is best described as "one of considerable caution—particularly in the first six months," according to Bresnahan.

Total revenue is expected to continue rising. Expenses, on the other hand, appear likely to continue climbing at a faster rate throughout the year.

"Most economists see a generally brighter picture for the economy in 1970," Bresnahan said. "If they are correct, the trucking industry's position could improve accordingly."

Hideaways Harder To Locate

It's getting harder all the time to get away from it all. Tropical locations like the Admiralty Islands, Nauru and Bougainville remain out-of-the-way, but they're no longer out of touch.

The Bell System added almost a dozen new places to its overseas communications network in 1969.

Bell System service to the South Pacific now includes such remote spots as the Ellice Islands, Saipan, the Gilbert Islands, New Ireland and the Chatham Islands.

In 1927, overseas communications consisted of a single circuit between New York City and London. Today more than 200 countries and territories are within reach of the world's telephones.

Nauru (pop. 6,000) became the latest country to join the overseas communications system when service was initiated between it and the United States on Sept. 26. One of the world's smallest nations, Nauru is 1,300 miles northeast of Australia and about 30 miles south of the equator. A daily rate of $12 for the initial three minutes of a call is in effect.

Other areas now "reachable" include the islands of Sao Tome and Principe, both controlled by Portugal, located in the Atlantic Ocean off the southern coast of Africa, and Portuguese Guinea on the west coast of Africa.

Memorial Held For M.E. Amstutz

Memorial services were held for M. E. Amstutz, 70, the superintendent of highways for Lake County who died Jan. 5 in Con-dell Memorial Hospital, Libertyville following a heart attack.

Born June 9, 1899 in Henrietta, Ohio, Amstutz attended Baldwin-Wallace College and received his B.S. in civil engineering from Northwestern University in 1925, the same year he joined the Lake County Highway Department. He was appointed superintendent in January, 1950, and was scheduled to retire effective January 17, after 20 years in the post and nearly 45 years with the department.

Known widely both in the county and state, Amstutz was recognized as an expert on highway matters. He served on several state advisory boards by appointment under two governors; was cited as Illinois Engineer of the Year in 1962; was regional vice-president of the National Association of County Superintendents of Highways; a member of the Professional Engineers Examining committee of Illinois; the National Council of State Board of Engineering Examiners; and the accreditation team for the Engineering Council for Professional Development. Amstutz was listed in "Who's Who in Engineering," and "Who's Who in the Midwest."

The superintendent had recently completed work on, and received county board approval for, an extensive multi-million dollar county road building and improvement program.

Under his personal direction, the Lake County highway department was developed into what is considered a model for operations of its type in Illinois.
